DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Easter Prayer
Lord, the resurrection of Your Son has given us new life and renewed hope.
Help us to live as new people
in pursuit of the Christian ideal.
Grant us wisdom to know what we must do,
the will to want to do it,
the courage to undertake it,
the perseverance to continue to do it,
and the strength to complete it.

The joy of Easter cannot be contained in just one day. The past eight days (the Octave of Easter) were celebrated as one. On this day we hear the gospel story of Thomas the doubter. And the response of the Church, our response, to Thomas is to celebrate the Divine Mercy. We pray for many things and expect God's response. We leave the details to Him and trust in His infinite love and mercy for us. Jesus left the details to His Father....and he was raised from the dead! Alleluia!

For Pope Francis and Bishop Christian as they unite in faith so many Catholics in a time of isolation and distancing. We pray to the Lord.

For an abundant outpouring of the Divine Mercy as so many people come to the assistance of their neighbours and the elderly and to support health care workers. We pray to the Lord.

For health care workers and men and women in essential, frontline jobs who risk their health and lives providing for the sick and for those at home. We pray to the Lord.

For people who are separated from family and those they love and who feel afraid and alone. We pray to the Lord.

For people who have lost their work and income and who worry about feeding their families and keeping their homes. We pray to the Lord.

For the healing of those infected with the Covid-19 virus. We pray to the Lord.

For our faithful departed, NN..... that they will enjoy light and peace in the Kingdom of Heaven and that their families may soon gather to mourn them and celebrate their new life. We pray to the Lord.
