FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Easter Prayer
Lord, the resurrection of Your Son has given us new life and renewed hope.
Help us to live as new people
in pursuit of the Christian ideal.
Grant us wisdom to know what we must do,
the will to want to do it,
the courage to undertake it,
the perseverance to continue to do it,
and the strength to complete it.

Many people present themselves as experts. We have to be very careful when choosing the voices and advice we follow, especially during this time of pandemic and threats to the health and wellbeing of everyone.

Some "experts" are merely profiteers, trying to take advantage in a time of uncertainty. Others are narcissistic, enjoying attention from people desperately seeking good advice. And yet others put forward some forms of expertise to sow confusion, or worse, cause harm. But the individuals who speak in terms of care and compassion for the sick and who back up their knowledge with hours of selfless work to heal the sick stand out and we easily recognize them.

Jesus, the Good Shepherd, knows us and cares for us. His words draw us to love each other and express our love in care and compassion for others, especially the weak and powerless, the poor and the hungry, the widow and orphan. We are reminded of this today, Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus offered His life for us and God raised Him on high. He will do the same for us. He has the words of everlasting life!

For Pope Francis and Bishop Christian as they help us to renew our traditional prayer in the month of May dedicated to Mary and the Rosary. We pray to the Lord.

For a renewal of hope throughout the world as healing continues and the efforts to control the COVID19 virus succeed. We pray to the Lord.

For comfort and healing of the people of Nova Scotia still dealing with the violent loss of life and devastation of families. We pray to the Lord.

For people living in isolation and fear because of the pandemic and for individuals and families mourning in solitude. We pray to the Lord.

For the ongoing valiant efforts of healthcare professionals and frontline, essential workers as they tirelessly heal the sick and ensure the safety of all. We pray to the Lord.

For a generous response of young men to Christ's invitation to serve Him and His people as priests and religious. We pray to the Lord.

For a renewal of Religious Community life for women and willingness among young women to answer this call to service. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN....that Christ, the Good Shepherd will gather them to Himself. We pray to the Lord.
