INTRODUCTION TO THE PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Take a moment and think about someone you love very much. Now, describe them in one word. That's very difficult if not impossible. You were probably thinking of your spouse or your parent(s) or one of your children or a sibling. The endearing qualities, the virtues of soul and strengths of character and shared life experiences are what probably come to mind. And that quickly leads us to share stories of what they mean to us, and why.

Now, think about God. You are more likely to talk about how you experience God rather than describe this unique relationship in one word or phrase.

When we first became aware of the world around us, and our place in it, wonder was born in us as we realized that all of this had been made or created by someone. We think of God first as a creator or parent we call Father. As we grow older we discover that not all people are "nice" or caring and that some people are responsible for some very bad deeds. Reflecting on that, we understand that we could have been part of the evil in the world. But God saved us from that and we think of Him as a brother, a Saviour, a Redeemer whom we call the Son. And as we reach out to others in compassion and care, and fall in love, and bring life into the world and feel the pain of loss we know that God is present in yet another way ..as a Consoler and Helper and Sanctifier, the Holy Spirit.

Three different persons yet the same God and the love that sustains that relationship we call the Trinity. It is what God wants for each of us and all of us. That sounds simple enough so try not to get caught up in making it complicated and impossible!

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

For Pope Francis and Bishop Christian as they inspire our Church and our Diocese to be a community of forgiveness and love, united in charity, in imitation of the life of the Holy Trinity. We pray to the Lord.

In the month of June, dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, let us pray for the health and sanctification of priests, especially for Monsignor Henneberry as he serves our parish and diocese. We pray to the Lord.

For racial harmony and respect in the United States, Canada and around the world. We pray to the Lord.

For our province as we continue to deal with the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic and for the tireless healthcare and frontline workers. We pray to the Lord.

For the many charities affected by the pandemic and for the countless poor and hungry who count on their help. We pray to the Lord.

For each one in need of our prayers, especially those who are isolated and those unable to be with family as they mourn. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN.... and for the consolation of their families and friends. We pray to the Lord.
