INTRODUCTION TO THE PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

"A Mari Usque Ad Mare" is the motto of our beloved Canada. It is translated as "From Sea to Sea" and was taken from verse 8 of Psalm 72. The Psalm verse gives a much larger context and something of the mind of those who chose it. The full verse says that "He shall have Dominion from sea even unto shining sea". It reminds us that we did not create or make it but are only stewards of the land. We can use and develop it for the benefit of all. It also suggests that justice and mercy and protection for the weak and most vulnerable that characterize God's kingdom should also be the hallmarks of our society.

The words of the motto are heard today in the first reading and look to a future time when peace will rule over all the land. It is obvious that not all of these things have become established realities in our country. Indeed, some people have been treated very badly. Human attempts to reconcile these things seem to consist of taking a perceived "entitlement" from some and giving it to others.

Jesus said, "Come to me all you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. Take MY yoke upon you and learn from ME.". And all of this He offers to those who can simplify their own lives, in imitation of Him, rather than choosing to complicate the lives of others.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

For Pope Francis and Bishop Christian as they encourage us to pray for families during the month of July, especially for families separated by the pandemic or by conflicts. We pray to the Lord.

For a renewed understanding among people that we have all been created in God's image and are worthy of dignity and respect. We pray to the Lord.

For people still waiting to return to work and for graduates and students unable to find summer employment. We pray to the Lord.

For expectant mothers under added stress during this time of pandemic and for women feeling pressure to end their pregnancy. We pray to the Lord.

For each person who has asked you to pray for them and for particular needs you have today. We pray to the Lord.

For all those who are ill, especially from the Corona virus, and for their caregivers. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN..... that they will enjoy refreshment light and peace in the kingdom of Heaven. We pray to the Lord.

Patsy Enright, Florence MacDonald, Theresa Phelan,
Rosamund Fox, Robert Landry, David Yelle,
A. Aruldass (brother of Fr. Martin Arputham)

The church is still locked due to the corona virus. Msgr. Brian Henneberry, VG will be offering an online mass at 9 a.m. each Sunday. You can watch at HolyRedeemerSJ.com. Weekend Masses have resumed via lottery ONLY.

This system will remain in place for the time being as we are required by law to track attendance, i.e. we need the names and contact information of all those in attendance at each Mass.

Our office remains closed, but you may contact us by calling 653-6830 or by e-mail to stpiusx@nb.aibn.com. All telephone messages will be returned. As has been our practice, the office is closed on Fridays during the summer months.
