like too much or not enough sun. We can feel “dried up” or parched and thirsting for something. Or there can be times that seem dark that leave us cold and feeling barren or alone.

But God still sows His seed, His Word, in our lives. The water of Baptism, or the moments of grace when our lives are touched by the kindness, compassion or need of another allows His Word to take root. It seeks out our spiritual strength. His Word finds human kindness and care and reasons for hope that we often think are absent or dormant within us. Perhaps we need to pray for eyes to see this and ears to hear this. Then we can discover the goodness and holiness already growing within us and others.

Introduction to the Prayers of the Faithful

The fresh, local strawberries appearing in stores announced summer as much as any date on the calendar. And they remind us of the many farmers who work so hard. Often they are at the mercy of weather and climate as they provide us with the food we need. Many people have also turned to vegetable gardening at home. In the absence of a small plot in the backyard, a few containers or wooden boxes filled with soil provide a fertile environment. With some sun and water and a few seeds something always appears. And the nutrients from the soil combined with energy and vitamins from the sun both sustain us and delight us.

These images can teach us something about our own lives. We are told that God first fashioned human life from the soil. He created the earth long before Jesus taught the crowds with parables. Our lives often experience what feels

Prayers of the Faithful

For Pope Francis and Bishop Christian as they lead the Church and our Diocese during these difficult times. We pray to the Lord.

For our country as so many people still deal with the consequences of the COVID 19 pandemic and for countries that lack the healthcare and resources that we enjoy in Canada. We pray to the Lord.

For a calming of social tensions and a greater appreciation and respect for people who are different from ourselves. We pray to the Lord.

For a carefree summer for our children and grandchildren and an easing of their worries and fears. We pray to the Lord.

For people in need of our prayers today, especially those who suffer from anxiety and fear and who feel alone. We pray to the Lord.

For each person gathered here with us and for the people we carry here in our hearts and memories. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN..... and for those who mourn them. We pray to the Lord.
