Introduction to the Prayers of the Faithful

It was once said that two of the best companions for a lifetime were books. The first, of course, was the Bible. The second was a dictionary. Wisdom was to be found in the words we read in the Bible. This wisdom opened our ears and eyes to the Word made flesh, Jesus. Clarity of words (their meaning and spelling) was available in the dictionary. With this clarity we could share and communicate what we had discovered and understood about Jesus. The Bible, or at least some of it, becomes inscribed in our hearts and on our minds. Its truth, beauty and wisdom never change.

The dictionary remained at our side, especially while doing crosswords or playing Scrabble! But it is always incomplete and sometimes of no benefit. New words are added to our language each day. Some reflect the role of technology in the world. Other words just seem to be "made up". They accompany fads and passing (or just plain senseless) theories about who we are and about popular culture.

But there is comfort and familiarity in the words of today's Mass readings. Here is language we can sink our teeth into! In seeking God's wisdom we understand who we are, and in whose image we have been made. We begin to understand that the things and pursuits that we value in this life point us to God's Kingdom, as long as we guard against pride, greed and selfishness!

Prayers of the Faithful

For Pope Francis, Bishop Christian and all the bishops who faithfully lead God's people in building His Kingdom. We pray to the Lord.

For people around the world and at home who are directly affected by the Covid 19 pandemic and for those working on developing a vaccine.
We pray to the Lord.

For children at risk and for those who work for the protection of children in our church and in schools and places of recreation and sports.
We pray to the Lord.

For families facing financial difficulty at this time and especially for expectant mothers and the added stresses they face. We pray to the Lord.

For the safety of travelers and for those who are unable to travel at this time.
We pray to the Lord.

For all who are ill and especially for those who are discouraged and depressed at home or in hospital or nursing homes. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN..... and for their families and friends who mourn them. We pray to the Lord.
