Introduction to the Prayers of the Faithful

Four years have passed since Fort McMurray was devastated by fire. Stories are told, with great emotion, about the day when tens of thousands escaped by the one road out of town. The Israelites were lead by a pillar of fire at night as they sought the Promised Land. The people of Fort McMurray, many from New Brunswick, were SURROUNDED by fire and could only see the vehicle ahead of them through the dense smoke. As it grew hotter in their vehicles they thought only of reaching safety while pushing away the thoughts of failure.

Many prayed, and drew upon their faith and the faith of their parents. Some thought of loved ones, living and dead, to get them through. Others thought of the children in the car as their angels that day. Faith and love, and the concern for safety of others brought them through the fire.

St. Peter learned that reaching out in faith saved his life that day on the stormy sea. In times of crisis we would all like to be swept from present danger into a safe place. Experience teaches us that faith in Jesus enables us to reach deep down inside and find the strength and resources we need. It becomes very clear if we take time to give thanks when the dangers and sadness and losses have passed.

Prayers of the Faithful

For Pope Francis as he calls the Church to solidarity with Catholics facing persecution and deadly attacks and vandalism against churches and symbols of faith. We pray to the Lord.

For a renewed effort among world leaders to abandon nuclear weapons. We pray to the Lord.

For Bishop Christian and the priests and lay faithful of the Diocese as we look for creative ways to evangelize while COVID-19 protocols remain in effect. We pray to the Lord.

For the Acadian people of New Brunswick, and especially for those in our diocese as they celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of Mary this week. We pray to the Lord.

For people struggling with the consequences of the pandemic and for those preparing to receive our children and grandchildren for a new school year. We pray to the Lord.

For our family members and friends in need of our prayers today and for all who are ill. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN.... and for their families who are unable to be together at this time. We pray to the Lord.
