Introduction to the Prayers of the Faithful

There is an old joke that has an angel showing a new arrival around the corridors of heaven. As they pass each door the angel identifies which group lives there. When they come to one particular room there is a sign that says SILENCE PLEASE. Once they have tiptoed past this door the new arrival asks the angel "Who lives behind THAT door?" The angel replied "that's where the Catholics live and they think they are the only ones up here!". The humour is intended to illustrate the lavishness of God's forgiveness and mercy. Who will be in Heaven? Whoever God lets in!

And the parable today of the workers coming to the job late and getting the same wage as those who worked longer reminds us that God alone judges and God alone knows what is in the heart of each person and which of those hearts has been pierced as was the heart of His Immaculate Mother.

So don't act too surprised when you see some of your friends when you get to heaven...they might be recovering from the shock of seeing you!

Prayers of the Faithful

For Pope Francis and Bishop Christian as they humbly and faithfully live out their vocation of service to the Church. We pray to the Lord.

For our Diocese and for parishes throughout the world as we meet the challenge of instructing young people and children in the ways of faith and hope during the ongoing pandemic. We pray to the Lord.

For the many millions of people affected by wildfires and natural tragedy and for the dear people of the Miramichi as they support each other and heal from the loss of young life. We pray to the Lord.

For the poor and homeless and the hardships they are facing as summer comes to an end. We pray to the Lord.

For anyone who is sick, at home or in hospital, and for those still living in isolation and who are discouraged. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN..... and for their families and friends who mourn them, especially those unable to travel and be together. We pray to the Lord.
