We have to accept that there is indeed a place for God in each life and in our common life. God will not force Himself on anyone. He just waits for our invitation to let Him in so He can reveal His Beloved Son who is the way, the truth and the life. And then "rendering unto God" becomes a joy and gives real freedom.

Prayers of the Faithful

For Pope Francis as he continues to make Gospel values the basis for every activity and project undertaken by the Vatican State. We pray to the Lord.

For Bishop Christian as he prepares himself through prayer to be the minister of Confirmation to the young people of our parish. We pray to the Lord.

For our dear children and grandchildren who will receive the Sacrament of Confirmation and be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit to strengthen them as they witness to their faith in Jesus. We pray to the Lord.

For those in the ongoing debate over assisted suicide and for vulnerable and challenged individuals who fear this will lead to their becoming victims to this program. We pray to the Lord.

For every person affected by the ongoing pandemic and for those who are forced to live in isolation and fear and loneliness. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN....., for their families and friends who mourn them and for funeral directors and assistants who care for them. We pray to the Lord.

Introduction to the Prayers of the Faithful

"Rendering unto Caesar what belongs to Caesar" has presented challenges to people in every era of recorded civilization. It presents itself in the form of taxes to be paid to established government/authority or being sent into battle by the recognized authority.

Usually it is quite obvious who Caesar is. The authority and power of government is well defined. Left to its own designs it often finds ways to insert itself into every aspect of the daily life of a country and its citizens.

Now, what about "Rendering unto God what belongs to God"? Caesar will try to define that too. It becomes more important in those times for us to understand what place God has in our lives and in the life of our nation.
