Introduction to the Prayers of the Faithful

The recent Pastoral Letter of our Bishop, Christian Riesbeck, has been received very positively and with gratitude in every region of our Diocese. His call to encounter Jesus through prayer, and to witness to our faith through evangelizing, gives us reason to be hopeful! We need not feel imprisoned by the pandemic!

Soon after, Pope Francis issued his encyclical letter "Fratelli Tutti". He pointed out that the pandemic has hurt poor people and working families the hardest and the stages of recovery will be hardest for them as well. He reminds the world that recovery from the pandemic can't be just a return to "business as usual". It must also address the situations and inequities that have caused such hardship in the first place!

But the frustrations of many groups and individuals, their fear of how the pandemic will end and a growing mistrust of people and groups who are different seem to be the only "stuff" that makes the news. "There ought to be a law!" seems to be the common chants and cries of the crowds -

BUT THERE IS A LAW!!!! It is the law of love. And Jesus reminds us today to love God with everything we have and are and to love our neighbour and others as we would be loved ourselves!

Prayers of the Faithful

For Pope Francis whose prayer intention asks for increased participation of lay people in the administration of the Church. We pray to the Lord.

For Bishop Christian as he calls our Diocese to unity to witness to Christ in these uncertain times. We pray to the Lord.

For increasing participation in the life of our parish by those who have just been confirmed in the faith by Bishop Christian. We pray to the Lord.

For all levels of government, as they seek to assist people most affected by the pandemic, that they will affirm the value of every human life. We pray to the Lord.

For those who are working and contributing to help the poor at Christmas and for individuals and families under increasing hardship from colder weather. We pray to the Lord.

For anyone who is sick and for people suffering in isolation and from loneliness. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN..... and for those who mourn them. We pray to the Lord.
