In today's world married couples try to witness to God's forgiveness through their willingness to forgive each other and sacrifice for each other. They call each other to holiness in a way that is prophetic for the world. And that they do so in a world that does not often respect their commitment they are heroic and show us how to be humble before God.

Introduction to the Prayers of the Faithful

In 1989 Bishop Troy encouraged his priests to renew the tradition of preaching on the Sacrament of Matrimony on the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time. The readings on this second Sunday speak to us of the call of a prophet, the call of the first disciples and a call to physical integrity.

In gratitude for the witness of married couples and for those who are planning marriage during this difficult year. We pray to the Lord.

People who have been called together in the grace of marriage offer a much needed witness to each of today's readings as we face the challenges of our modern world and its current circumstances.

For the many people, especially the elderly and the poor, affected by the Pandemic here in New Brunswick and around the world. We pray to the Lord.

The larger story in the Scriptures reminds us that it was not an easy path for the prophets and many stumbled along the way. Peter, and his brother Andrew were far from perfect and their spiritual descendants (the Churches of the East and West) experienced a long estrangement of nearly a thousand years! For many of the biblical heroes physical integrity was not achieved in an instant!

For our High School students writing examinations during this stressful time and for all our children and grandchildren. We pray to the Lord.

For those who have died NN..... and for their families. We pray to the Lord.
